

TABLE OF CONTENTS

EUROPEAN COUNTERPARTS OF THE BELGIAN FUSION CENTRE

Guy RAPAILLE and Wauter VAN LAETHEM. . . . . xvii

FUTURE CHALLENGES IN THE FIGHT AGAINST TERRORISM

Gilles DE KERCHOVE. . . . . xxi

CHAPTER I

BELGIUM – THE COORDINATION UNIT FOR THREAT ASSESSMENT

(CUTA) . . . . . 1

I.1. Background. . . . . 1

I.2. The Belgian intelligence and security landscape in the fight against terrorism: a brief account . . . . . 3

I.2.1. Security policy . . . . . 3

I.2.2. Intelligence gathering . . . . . 4

I.2.3. Threat assessment . . . . . 4

I.2.4. Operational matters . . . . . 5

I.3. Legal framework for the CUTA. . . . . 5

I.4. Threat assessments in the fight against terrorism. . . . . 6

I.4.1. Ad hoc and strategic assessments . . . . . 6

I.4.2. Who can request an assessment? . . . . . 7

I.4.3. Data that the CUTA's assessments can be based on. . . . . 7

I.4.3.1. Intelligence from the supporting services . . . . . 8

I.4.3.2. Information and intelligence from services other than the supporting services . . . . . 12

I.4.3.3. Information and intelligence from foreign counterparts. . . . . 12

I.4.3.4. Own database with work files. . . . . 12

I.4.4. Who receives the assessments? . . . . . 13

I.5. Other tasks of the CUTA . . . . . 13

I.6. Organisation, resources, management and authority . . . . . 14

I.7. Internal and external review on the operations of the CUTA . . . . . 14

I.7.1. Internal review. . . . . 14

I.7.2. External review . . . . . 15

I.8.	Some final considerations . . . . .	1
I.9.	Bibliography . . . . .	14
I.10.	Contact information . . . . .	17

CHAPTER II

BULGARIA – THE COUNTER-TERRORISM COORDINATION CENTRE (CTCC) OF THE STATE AGENCY FOR NATIONAL SECURITY (SANS) . . . 19

II.1.	Background . . . . .	19
II.2.	The Bulgarian intelligence and security landscape in the fight against the terrorism: a brief account . . . . .	21
II.2.1.	Security policy . . . . .	21
II.2.2.	Intelligence gathering . . . . .	21
II.2.3.	Threat assessment . . . . .	22
II.2.4.	Operational matters and activities . . . . .	22
II.3.	Legal framework for information gathering activities and counter-terrorism . . . . .	23
II.3.1.	International agreements . . . . .	23
II.3.2.	Legal framework regulating the CTCC's activities in the field of counter-terrorism . . . . .	23
II.3.3.	Other legal acts related to counter-terrorism . . . . .	24
II.4.	Threat assessment in the counter-terrorism field . . . . .	25
II.4.1.	Ad hoc (occasional) and strategic assessments . . . . .	25
II.4.2.	Users requesting threat assessments . . . . .	26
II.4.3.	Data that the CTCC's activities can be based on and intelligence sources . . . . .	26
II.4.3.1.	Structural units responsible for providing intelligence in the counter-terrorism field . . . . .	26
II.4.3.2.	Information and intelligence from other national services . . . . .	28
II.4.3.3.	Intelligence made available by the foreign specialised services . . . . .	28
II.4.3.4.	Databases and working files . . . . .	29
II.4.4.	Users of the threat assessments and other analytical products . . . . .	29
II.5.	Other tasks of the CTCC . . . . .	29
II.6.	Organisation, resources, management and authority . . . . .	30
II.7.	Internal and external review of the activities of the CTCC and the SANS . . . . .	31
II.7.1.	Internal review . . . . .	31
II.7.2.	External review . . . . .	31

II.8.	Some final considerations .....	31
II.9.	Contact information .....	32

CHAPTER III

CYPRUS – THE COUNTER-TERRORISM OFFICE (CTO) OF THE CYPRUS POLICE AND THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE SERVICE (CIS).....

33

III.1.	Background.....	33
III.2.	Authorities in the fight against terrorism: coordination and threat assessment .....	36
III.3.	Contact information .....	38

CHAPTER IV

CZECH REPUBLIC – THE COMMON INTELLIGENCE GROUP (CIG) AND THE NATIONAL COUNTER-TERRORISM CONTACT POINT (NCTCP).....

39

IV.1.	Background.....	39
IV.2.	Institutional framework and authorities responsible in the fight against terrorism .....	42
IV.2.1.	The president of the Czech Republic.....	42
IV.2.2.	The parliament of the Czech Republic .....	42
IV.2.3.	The government of the Czech Republic .....	42
IV.2.4.	The National Security Council and its committees .....	43
IV.2.4.1.	The Foreign Security Policy Coordination committee .....	44
IV.2.4.2.	The Defence Planning Committee.....	44
IV.2.4.3.	The Civil Emergency Planning Committee	44
IV.2.4.4.	The Intelligence Activity Committee .....	45
IV.2.4.5.	The Central Crisis Staff .....	46
IV.2.5.	The Ministry of Interior, the police and the fire rescue service .....	46
IV.2.6.	The Ministry of Foreign Affairs.....	47
IV.2.7.	The Ministry of Justice and the judiciary system.....	48
IV.2.8.	The intelligence services .....	48
IV.3.	Threat assessment.....	49
IV.4.	International cooperation and exchange of information.....	50
IV.5.	Contact information .....	51

CHAPTER V
DENMARK – THE CENTRE FOR TERROR ANALYSIS (CTA) OF THE SECURITY AND INTELLIGENCE SERVICE (PET) . . . . .
	53
V.1.	Background . . . . . 53
V.2.	The Danish security and intelligence landscape in the fight against terrorism: a brief account . . . . . 54
V.2.1.	Security policy . . . . . 54
V.2.2.	Intelligence gathering . . . . . 55
V.2.3.	Threat assessment . . . . . 55
V.2.4.	Operational matters . . . . . 56
V.3.	Legal framework for the Centre for Terror Analysis (CTA) . . . . . 56
V.4.	Threat assessment in the fight against terrorism. . . . . 56
V.4.1.	Different types of threat assessments and analyses . . . . . 57
V.4.2.	Use of the assessments . . . . . 58
V.5.	Other tasks of the CTA . . . . . 58
V.6.	Organisation, resources management and authority . . . . . 59
V.7.	Review of the operations of the CTA . . . . . 60
V.7.1.	Supervision through the minister of justice . . . . . 60
V.7.2.	Parliamentary supervision . . . . . 60
V.7.3.	Judicial supervision . . . . . 61
V.7.4.	Records supervision . . . . . 61
V.7.5.	Supervision through the National Audit Office . . . . . 61
V.8.	Some final considerations . . . . . 62
V.9.	Bibliography . . . . . 62
V.10.	Contact information . . . . . 63
CHAPTER VI
ESTONIA – THE SECURITY POLICE BOARD (KAPO) AND THE GOVERNMENT SECURITY COMMITTEE (GSC) . . . . .
	65
VI.1.	Background . . . . . 65
VI.2.	The Estonian intelligence and security landscape in the fight against terrorism: a brief account . . . . . 66
VI.2.1.	The Parliament Surveillance Committee. . . . . 66
VI.2.2.	The Government Security Committee (GSC) and the Office of the Director of Coordination of the State Chancellery . . . . . 67
VI.2.3.	The security authorities . . . . . 67
VI.2.4.	Other bodies and authorities involved in counter-terrorist activities. . . . . 68

VI.3.	The Fundamentals of counter-terrorism and the Counter-terrorism Action Plan .....	70
VI.4.	The legal framework.....	71
VI.5.	Threat assessments.....	71
	VI.5.1. Annual terrorist threat assessment.....	71
	VI.5.2. Ad hoc terrorist threat assessment.....	72
VI.6.	Some final considerations.....	72
VI.7.	Bibliography .....	72
VI.8.	Contact information .....	73

CHAPTER VII

EUROPEAN UNION – THE JOINT SITUATION CENTRE (SITCEN)..... 75

VII.1.	Background.....	76
VII.2.	Threat assessment and other tasks of the SITCEN.....	77
VII.3.	Authority and structure .....	78
VII.4.	Analysis and assessment.....	78
VII.5.	Contact information .....	79

CHAPTER VIII

GERMANY – THE JOINT COUNTER-TERRORISM CENTRE (GTAZ) ... 81

VIII.1.	Background.....	81
VIII.2.	Security architecture in the Federal Republic of Germany.....	82
	VIII.2.1. Jurisdiction of the federal prosecutor general's office ...	83
	VIII.2.2. Organisation of the German police forces.....	84
	VIII.2.2.1. The state police forces.....	84
	VIII.2.2.2. The federal police forces.....	84
	VIII.2.3. Organisation of the German intelligence services.....	87
	VIII.2.3.1. State offices for the protection of the constitution .....	87
	VIII.2.3.2. The federal intelligence services.....	87
VIII.3.	Important statutory amendments in the field of counter-terrorism since 11 september 2001 .....	91
VIII.4.	Counter-terrorism mechanisms for threat assessment and the exchange of information.....	92
	VIII.4.1. The Joint Counter-Terrorism Centre (GTAZ).....	92
	VIII.4.2. The Anti-Terror Database (ATD) .....	94
	VIII.4.3. The Joint Internet Centre (GIZ).....	95
VIII.5.	Some final considerations.....	96
VIII.6.	Contact information .....	96

CHAPTER IX*GREECE – THE STATE SECURITY DIVISION (SSD) OF THE HELLENIC POLICE HEADQUARTERS . . . . . 97

IX.1.	Background . . . . .	97
IX.2.	The Greek intelligence and security framework for counter-terrorism: a brief account . . . . .	98
IX.2.1.	Security policy and the Analysis and Research Coordination Council (ARCC) . . . . .	98
IX.2.2.	Intelligence and information gathering . . . . .	99
	IX.2.2.1. The State Security Division . . . . .	99
	IX.2.2.2. The Special Violent Crimes Division . . . . .	100
IX.3.	Legal framework . . . . .	100
IX.4.	Threat assessments in the fight against terrorism . . . . .	101
IX.5.	Organisation and resources of the State Security Division . . . . .	102
IX.6.	Some final considerations . . . . .	102
IX.7.	Contact information . . . . .	103

CHAPTER X*HUNGARY – THE COUNTER-TERRORISM COORDINATION COMMITTEE (CTCC) . . . . . 105

X.1.	Background . . . . .	105
X.2.	The Counter-Terrorism Coordination Committee (CTCC) . . . . .	106
X.3.	The national security services involved in the fight against terrorism . . . . .	107
X.4.	Legal basis for the CTCC . . . . .	107
X.5.	Threat levels and the role of the CTCC . . . . .	107
X.6.	Different tasks of the CTCC . . . . .	108
X.7.	Structure, financial resources and competences of the CTCC . . . . .	109
X.8.	External and internal supervision of the CTCC . . . . .	110
X.9.	Contact information . . . . .	111

CHAPTER XI*ITALY – THE COMMITTEE FOR STRATEGIC COUNTER-TERRORISM ANALYSIS (CASA) . . . . . 113

XI.1.	Background . . . . .	113
XI.2.	Relevant legislation . . . . .	114
XI.3.	Organisation and functioning . . . . .	114

XI.4.	Different tasks and responsibilities . . . . .	115
XI.4.1.	Threat assessment and information analysis. . . . .	115
XI.4.2.	Preventative initiatives taken by the CASA. . . . .	117
XI.4.2.1.	Islamic radicalism. . . . .	118
XI.4.2.2.	Preventative police operations . . . . .	118
XI.4.2.3.	Identification of dangerous subjects with a view to their expulsion. . . . .	118
XI.4.2.4.	Monitoring of the internet, in particular of jihadist websites. . . . .	119
XI.4.2.5.	Monitoring of the prison system . . . . .	119
XI.4.2.6.	In-depth investigations into means of financing . . . . .	119
XI.4.3.	Support to the crisis unit . . . . .	120
XI.4.4.	Cooperation with CASA's counterparts. . . . .	120
XI.5.	Some final considerations . . . . .	121
XI.6.	Contact information . . . . .	121

CHAPTER XII

	LATVIA – THE COUNTER-TERRORISM CENTRE (PTC) OF THE SECURITY POLICE (DP) . . . . .	123
XII.1.	Background. . . . .	124
XII.2.	The Latvian intelligence and security landscape in the fight against terrorism: a brief account . . . . .	125
XII.2.1.	Security policy . . . . .	125
XII.2.2.	Intelligence gathering . . . . .	126
XII.2.3.	Threat assessments. . . . .	127
XII.2.4.	Operational matters . . . . .	127
XII.3.	Legal framework for the PTC. . . . .	127
XII.4.	Threat assessments in the fight against terrorism. . . . .	128
XII.4.1.	Ad hoc and strategic assessments . . . . .	128
XII.4.2.	Who can request an assessment? . . . . .	129
XII.4.3.	On what data can the PTC base its activities?. . . . .	129
XII.5.	Other tasks of the PTC . . . . .	130
XII.5.1.	Planning and coordination of terrorism prevention measures . . . . .	130
XII.5.2.	Planning and coordination of terrorism response measures . . . . .	132
XII.5.3.	The provision of security advice to protect critical infrastructures . . . . .	132

XII.5.4.	Conducting counter-terrorism training and exercises.....	133
XII.6.	Organisation, resources, management and authority .....	133
XII.7.	Internal and external review on the operations of the PTC .....	134
XII.7.1.	Internal review .....	134
XII.7.2.	External review .....	134
XII.8.	Some final considerations.....	134
CHAPTER XIII
LITHUANIA – THE COUNTER-TERRORISM DIRECTORATE (CTD) OF THE STATE SECURITY DEPARTMENT (VSD).....
135
XIII.1.	Background and legal framework .....	136
XIII.2.	The Counter-Terrorism Directorate (CTD) and threat assessments .....	137
XIII.3.	Contact information .....	138
CHAPTER XIV
LUXEMBOURG – THE HIGH COMMISSION FOR NATIONAL PROTECTION (HCNP).....
139
XIV.1.	Background.....	139
XIV.1.1.	National and international coordination.....	140
XIV.1.2.	Crisis management .....	140
XIV.1.3.	Political and operational.....	140
XIV.1.4.	Legislative, executive and judiciary .....	140
XIV.2.	The Luxembourg intelligence and security landscape in the fight against terrorism: a brief account.....	141
XIV.2.1.	Security policy .....	141
XIV.2.2.	Intelligence gathering.....	141
XIV.2.3.	Threat assessment .....	141
XIV.2.4.	Operational matters .....	142
XIV.3.	Legal framework.....	142
XIV.4.	Risk assessments in the fight against terrorism.....	142
XIV.5.	Contact information .....	143

CHAPTER XV*MALTA – THE MALTA SECURITY SERVICE (MSS) AND THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE CELL (NIC) . . . . . 145

XV.1.	The Malta Security Service (MSS) and strategic analysis . . . . .	146
XV.2.	The National Counter-Terrorism Coordinator (NCTC) and the exchange of information. . . . .	146
XV.3.	The National Intelligence Cell (NIC) and ad hoc assessments . . . . .	146
XV.3.1.	Structure and composition. . . . .	146
XV.3.2.	Mission . . . . .	147
XV.3.3.	Human resources. . . . .	147
XV.3.4.	Threat levels . . . . .	147
XV.3.5.	Ad hoc assessments . . . . .	148
XV.4.	Contact information . . . . .	148

CHAPTER XVI*THE NETHERLANDS – THE EXPERTISE AND ANALYSIS DEPARTMENT (DKA) OF THE NATIONAL COORDINATOR FOR COUNTER-TERRORISM (NCTB) . . . . . 149

XVI.1.	Background. . . . .	150
XVI.2.	The National Coordinator for Counter-Terrorism (NCTb) and his Expertise and Analysis Department (DKA) . . . . .	151
XVI.3.	The objective of the Expertise and Analysis Department . . . . .	152
XVI.4.	The responsibilities of the Expertise and Analysis Department. . . . .	153
XVI.5.	The products of the Expertise and Analysis Department . . . . .	154
XVI.6.	The clients of the Expertise and Analysis Department . . . . .	155
XVI.7.	The Terrorist Threat Assessment Netherlands (DTN). . . . .	155
XVI.7.1.	The scope of the DTN . . . . .	156
XVI.7.2.	The realisation of the DTN. . . . .	157
XVI.7.3.	The recipients of the DTN . . . . .	158
XVI.7.4.	Threat levels in the DTN. . . . .	160
XVI.7.5.	Some final considerations. . . . .	161
XVI.8.	Contact information . . . . .	162

CHAPTER XVII*POLAND – THE COUNTER-TERRORIST CENTRE (CAT) OF THE INTERNAL SECURITY AGENCY (ABW)..... 163

XVII.1. Background.....	163
XVII.2. Brief overview of the Polish system of preventing and countering terrorism.....	164
XVII.2.1. Terrorism in the Polish law.....	164
XVII.2.2. The Polish counter-terrorism system.....	165
XVII.2.2.1. The Council of ministers and the advisory bodies.....	165
XVII.2.2.2. The security services and the Counter-Terrorist Centre (CAT).....	167
XVII.2.2.3. The armed forces.....	168
XVII.3. The Counter-Terrorist Centre within the system of preventing and countering terrorism.....	169
XVII.3.1. Legal framework for the CAT.....	169
XVII.3.2. Organisation, resources, management and authority... ..	170
XVII.3.3. Threat assessments in the fight against terrorism.....	170
XVII.3.3.1. Ad hoc and strategic assessments.....	170
XVII.3.3.2. Who can request assessments?.....	171
XVII.3.3.3. Who can receive assessments?.....	171
XVII.3.3.4. What data does the CAT use in the preparation of its assessments?.....	171
XVII.3.4. Other tasks of the CAT.....	172
XVII.4. Internal and external review.....	172
XVII.5. Bibliography.....	172
XVII.6. Contact information.....	173

CHAPTER XVIII*ROMANIA – THE ANTI-TERRORIST OPERATIVE COORDINATION CENTRE (ATOCC) OF THE ROMANIAN INTELLIGENCE SERVICE (SRI)..... 175

XVIII.1. Background.....	175
XVIII.2. The Romanian intelligence and security landscape in the fight against terrorism: a brief account.....	176
XVIII.2.1. The Supreme Council for National Defence (CSAT)....	176
XVIII.2.2. The National System for Preventing and Countering Terrorism (SNPCT).....	177
XVIII.2.3. The security and intelligence agencies.....	178

XVIII.2.4. The law enforcement bodies.....	178
XVIII.2.5. The police agencies .....	178
XVIII.2.6. The National Office for Preventing and Countering Money Laundering .....	179
XVIII.2.7. The National Centre for Anti-Terrorist Action (CNAAT).....	179
XVIII.3. Legal framework.....	179
XVIII.4. The Anti-Terrorist Operative Cooperation Centre (ATOCC).....	180
XVIII.4.1. Different tasks of the ATOCC .....	180
XVIII.4.2. Threat Assessment and five levels of terrorist alert .....	180
XVIII.4.3. The role of ATOCC in the National Centre for Anti- Terrorist Action (CNAAT).....	181
XVIII.4.4. Other tasks of the ATOCC.....	182
XVIII.5. Organisation, resources, management and authority .....	183
XVIII.6. Internal and external review .....	184
XVIII.7. Bibliography .....	184
XVIII.8. Contact information .....	185

CHAPTER XIX

SLOVENIA – THE COUNTER-TERRORISM WORK GROUP (CTWG) OF THE INTERDEPARTMENTAL WORK GROUP FOR THE FIGHT AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL THREATS (IWG) .....	187
XIX.1. Background.....	188
XIX.2. The Slovenian intelligence and security landscape in the fight against terrorism .....	188
XIX.2.1. The National Security Council (SNAV).....	189
XIX.2.2. The National Security Council Secretariat (SNAV Secretariat) .....	190
XIX.2.3. The Interdepartmental Work Group for the Fight Against Transnational Threats (IWG) and the Counter-Terrorism Work Group (CTWG) .....	191
XIX.2.4. Other working groups.....	192
XIX.2.5. The National Coordinator for the fight against terrorism .....	192
XIX.3. Legal framework for the Interdepartmental Work Group.....	192
XIX.4. The Counter-Terrorism Work Group and threat assessments .....	193
XIX.5. Organization, management and authority of CTWG .....	194
XIX.6. Internal and external review .....	195
XIX.7. Some final considerations.....	196

XIX.8.	Bibliography .....	196
XIX.9.	Contact information .....	197

CHAPTER XX

SPAIN – THE NATIONAL CENTRE OF ANTI-TERRORIST

COORDINATION (CNCA) .....	199
---------------------------	-----

XX.1.	Background .....	199
XX.1.1.	Local terrorism .....	199
XX.1.2.	International terrorism .....	200
XX.2.	The creation of the National Centre of Anti-terrorist Coordination (CNCA) .....	201
XX.3.	Purpose and aims .....	202
XX.4.	Organisation, resources, management and authority .....	203
XX.4.1.	Human resources .....	203
XX.4.2.	Structure .....	203
XX.5.	On what data can the CNCA base its activities? .....	204
XX.5.1.	Participating institutions .....	204
XX.5.2.	Access to different databases .....	205
XX.6.	The Different intelligence products of the CNCA .....	206
XX.7.	The Anti-terrorist Coordination System (SICOA) .....	206
XX.8.	Contact information .....	208

CHAPTER XXI

INTEGRATED TERRORIST THREAT ASSESSMENT IN EUROPE: AN OVERVIEW

Peter GILL .....	209
XXI.1.	Introduction .....	209
XXI.2.	What is the problem? .....	209
XXI.3.	'Fusion' as a solution to the problem .....	210
XXI.4.	The development of fusion centres .....	212
XXI.5.	The organisation of fusion centres .....	214
XXI.6.	Tasks .....	215
XXI.7.	Further questions .....	216
XXI.8.	Conclusion .....	219
XXI.9.	References .....	219